

Army Expeditionary Civilian Workforce Deployment Opportunities

Join the Army Expeditionary Civilian Workforce and provide skills crucial to support military operations. Talents and skills are needed for DA civilians to support the Total Army.

Overview

The Army Expeditionary Civilian Workforce (AECW) has deployment opportunities available for current Army civilians. These deployments offer career broadening experience at a level and scope that is difficult to match in a non-deployed setting. It is the chance of a lifetime to truly make a difference and to contribute in a meaningful way in direct support of our soldiers.
